Disclaimer: It can take up to 28 days for the implementation of screening against a number registered on the TPS. Simply because a number is on the TPS does not immediately mean that calls will cease. Calls should cease after 28 days.

In rare circumstances, some numbers may be added, removed and added again at a later date to the TPS register. We will generally only show you the most recent date that a number was added to the register. If you require to know whether there is any history on a particular number i.e. has it been added, removed and possibly added again at a later date, please use the contact form on our website.
